

SAYING IS BELIEVING

“Autism Resource Mom has truly been a gift to our family. It provides organized social activities for children—especially teens and young adults—where they can practice social skills, and have fun at the same time! It also offers networking and support opportunities for family members, so they can discuss different ways to help their Autistic child, whatever their current challenges in life. I highly recommend it!” —Mom of an 18-year-old Autistic son

“We are so grateful for the group (Autism Resource Mom). Thanks!” —Parents of a 16-year-old son, Long Beach, CA

“Thanks to Autism Resource Mom, there are social opportunities for my daughter that she wants to participate in. From teen gatherings to field trips to creativity workshops to movie marathons, this is perfect for my daughter. She especially loves the teen night and her favorite was the cooking class. Thank you, Debora, for always being so helpful! It is much appreciated!” —Cosette King, Mother of a 19-year-old daughter with HFA

“Our son’s social life revolves around ARM activities—he lives for Friday Night Fun for Teens and never misses Comedy Night. It’s great to see him actually wanting to be social!” —Marie, Mother of a 17-year-old son with HFA, Orange County, CA

“Autism Resource Mom’s ‘A Heart-to-Heart with Mom’ roundtable sessions are therapeutic for me and lots of other parents.” —Shannon, mom, Anaheim, CA
